

Scriptures for WORSHIP
&
PRAISE

Worship is at the center of the great spiritual war in which we are engaged. Our worship is the prize of the war between God and Lucifer. Who will we bow down to and obey? In the last great battle before Jesus returns, the outcome of every man's life will be weighed upon the scale of worship: In the midst of warfare and conflict, to whom will we bow, God or satan?

To fully comprehend the place of worship as we battle against the enemies of darkness, we must grasp the concept of becoming worship warriors. Without the true worship of God, there can be no God-given victory in the war between good and evil - whether it is in our personal lives, a city or a region.

I invite you to use these Scriptures of worship (expressing humble adoration and priceless worth to God) and praise (the declaration of His greatness, goodness and grace) as a primer to your worship experience with the Lord of all creation, the Most High God, the Savior of the world.

My prayer is that as you, "Kiss Him with your worship, He will kiss you with His presence."
